SOLDIERS ARE GUESTS AT HOTEL

Thirty-four Returned Men Enjoy Dinner Given by Business Men.

Thirty-four returned soldiers were the guests of honor at a banquet given at the Hotel Mishawaka last evening. The dinner was given by the following Belgian business men of the city: Julius Bennett, Alois DeBeck, Leon Hallaert, Leo Tackles, Julius DeVuyssere, Joseph Voorde, Alphonse Bernard, Henry Himshout, Charles Didier and Philip Goethals. The guests of honor were all Mishawaka Belgian boys who served with the United States army with the exception of Achille Gryn, who left Mishawaka in 1914 to fight with the Belgian army before U. S. entered the war. He has just returned and is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Arthur DeRue, 328 W. Tenth st.

Julius Bennett gave the principal address of the evening in which he welcomed the boys back home. He also said that there were at least 40 more Belgian soldiers expected to arrive home within three weeks and that another banquet would be served at that time. Each of the soldiers was presented with some smokes as a souvenir of the occasion. The American and Belgian flags were prominently displayed. The boys in uniform marched to the hotel. A meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at which time arrangements will be made for another picnic to be held in the near future. The proceeds of this affair will be given to the soldiers. All returned soldiers who are residents of the southwest side of the city are cordially invited to attend Tuesday's meeting.

MAN IN THE STREET

William H. Tupper, one of our substantial citizens, holds down a good job at the Dodge Mfg. Co., as chief engineer, and also draws a salary from the city as a member of the board of public works, which we don't begrudge him in the least. He comes from a sturdy English fighting stock, but so far as we know, has never been pinched for killing anyone of our acquaintance. We pass over his youth in a hurry to mention his advent into Mishawaka in the early 90's. The damp atmosphere of the town seemed to agree with him and he settled down to enjoy it. Since the arid spell his health has not been quite so good and he has spent considerable time in the hospital of late. Since leaving that institution, however, he confesses he never felt better in his fighting life. He is still in the vigor of youth, attributing this to the fact that he is an all-round athlete. Duncan Campbell, who knows all of his idiosyncrasies, says of him in a historical sketch he has written: "Bowling, trap and crap shooter, bicycle rider, baseball player, horse shoe pitcher, auto racer, all round sportsman—Bill easily fell for the ancient game of golf when it was first introduced in this section at the old country club out at Fred Eberhart's farm, and he has been an enthusiastic member of the Ancient and Honorable Society of Golf Nuts ever since. He is universally regarded as a good old scout who will give you a fair run for your money in any game, indoor or outdoor." To which we may add our fervent Amen.

A KANSAS PHILOSOPHER SAYS A MAN WHO CAN'T SAY "NO" IS SOON MARRIED.

This is the first we have heard that the man had any say about the matter at all.

Kentucky reports the increase of moonshining. That's natural enough. So long as there are fools willing to pay $10 a quart for stuff that would make a wooden Indian kiss a Holstein bull there will be roughnecks in the hills who will take the chance and make it.

"What city is the capital of the new Irish republic?" asks an inquisitive reader of Osceola, New York.

"Four hundred alien enemies on their way to be deported." If we are to have a nation only American ways and American doings an American talk should be tolerated in this country.

An Illinois highwayman halted a taxi and robbed the driver, letting a soldier passenger go undisturbed. It shows that even a highwayman is responsive to patriotic impulses, whereas legitimate profiteers are not.

Germany and the republican party in the United States seem to be cornered about 98 per cent. of the unhappiness of politics.

Marshal Foch is proud that he is a Frenchman. If the marshal had been an American by this time he would have been abused, criticized and scandalized by a lot of jobby lounging stragglers until his children would have been almost ashamed to be seen in his company.

Judged by the wholesale cabinet resignations in Germany, the Ebert government was not manned by democrats, else the pay was irregular in appearance and disheartening in volume.

Personally, if we can resist becoming a bolshevist with South Bend bread selling at 10 cents for 12 ounces in Mishawaka, we shall be confident of our ability to escape being shot or hung for treason.

Alas, we fear Mishawaka is going to lose one of its most interesting and historical sights when Alvin Scott discards his bicycle. He is about to build an $800 garage. Or, maybe, Alvin intends to house his wheel in the new apartment, it having been such an old and faithful friend.

If we were a pessimist, by this time we would be despairing of Sen. Knox's recovery. He's wailing his eyes and foaming at the mouth, but we are confident his liver will get right eventually.

We trust our Methodist brethren who went from Mishawaka to the great centenary festival in progress in Columbus, O., purchased tickets straight to Columbus and avoided going to Toledo for the Fourth.

It is getting so nowadays that a girl can hardly blush at all until she has patronized the drug store.

Still, admitting as we do that buttermilk is far more delicious to the taste as well as in effect than goozledamp, nobody ever bootlegged buttermilk.

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium will come to the states in September, including Mishawaka in their itinerary. We base the latter statement upon the reasonable assumption that their majesties are rational and intelligent human beings. We feel sure Achille Colpaert and Julius Bennett will gladly finance the demonstration that will be put on in their honor.

"Perhaps you can not stop the tongue of gossip," observes a Mishawaka philosopher. You might by smashing it in the mouth, but not by shoving your ear at it.

When they tell you that whisky is as easy to obtain now as when the saloons were open, just call 'em liars. We see many sober men every day who would be spiffed if the juice was handy.

We see by the other paper that Attorney Harvey W. Jones has moved into a suite of offices in the Keller building and that henceforth he is going to deal in pedigreed rabbits. We always thought Harvey was cut out for something bigger and better than law. When his stock arrives and is caged, Doc Graham, who has his office next door to the menagerie, will probably feature free daily inoculations.

An Indiana man is said to have died from poisoning incident to the handling of large quantities of paper money. Add this cause of death to that of overeating, arteriosclerosis due to automobile riding, infection due to the kissing of "lip-stuck" lips, overindulgence in grape juice, carrots or rhubarb pies, and small-pox caught while on the way to vote the republican ticket, as among the most improbable things that may facilitate our transit to a higher and better world.

It is the people, not buildings, that make a city. But the buildings convey a pretty fair idea of what kind of people they are. We've had ours painted.

Here's one woman writer who says husbands should tell their wives everything. What's the use? The wives won't believe them.

"Who Does Your Thinking?" asks an inquisitive Woolen company office man. We do not reply, it being evident the query is directed to unmarried men.

Some of the men who served in the Archangel neighborhood seem to think they were sent there to protect the Northern Lights. Well, in times like these does it not devolve upon us to make the aurora borealis safe for democracy?
